

KOINONIA COUNSELING CENTER
SARA RICE, M.A. LLPC #6401017318

Description of Practice:

Thank you for choosing Koinonia Counseling Center, I am honored to walk along with you on your journey. Counseling involves the sharing of personal problems, concerns, and stories with a professional who is skilled at helping the client or clients come to a resolution or solution about a particular situation. My counseling style and approach is eclectic. The benefit of eclectic therapy is that therapy is customized to you and your unique needs, by using the most effective therapeutic techniques and integrating them into treatment. My counseling focus is on marriage and families as well as active military family challenges and transition into the civilian world, substance disorders, trauma, and women's issues.

Qualifications:

I have a master's degree in Professional Counseling from Liberty University in Lynchburg, Virginia. I have a Bachelor of Science in Psychology from Liberty University in Lynchburg, Virginia. I worked with individuals struggling with addiction for more than a year at Community Recovery Counseling Center, Pllc, which partnered with Community Recovery International. I volunteered through Army Strong Community Center and Alpha Grand Rapids, mentoring women. I have certifications in Marriage Works, Prepare/Enrich, Acute Stress, Grief, & Trauma as well as Stress & Trauma Care with Military Application.

Fee Scale:

Individual sessions are $90.00 per hour and my fees for Couples' Counseling is $120.00 per 1-1/2 hours and groups (including families) at the rate of $120.00 for 1-1/2 hours.

Supervision:

As a limited Licensed Professional Counselor, I am under the supervision of Diana Simpson, MA, LPC. Should you have any questions you may contact Ms. Simpson at 616-648-1566
I agree to supervise Sara Rice, MA, LLPC for the required post-degree counseling experience.
