Description of Practice:	Thank you for choosing Koinonia Counseling Center. I am honored to walk along with you on your journey. Counseling involves the sharing of personal problems, concerns, and stories with someone who is educated and trained with helping individuals come to a resolution or solution about a particular situation. My counseling style and approach is eclectic. The benefit of eclectic therapy is that therapy is customized to you and your unique needs, by using the most effective therapeutic techniques and integrating them into treatment. My counseling focus is on substance use disorders, depression, anxiety with a trauma-informed approach as well as trauma-related disorders, including Post Traumatic Stress Disorder and Dissociative Disorders.
Qualifications:	I have a master's degree in Professional Counseling from Liberty University in Lynchburg, Virginia. I have a Bachelor of Science in Psychology from Liberty University in Lynchburg, Virginia. I have clinical experience working with Substance Use Disorders, Mood Disorders, Trauma Disorders as well as Dissociative Disorders. I have certifications in Marriage Works, Prepare/Enrich, Acute Stress, Grief, & Trauma as well as Stress & Trauma Care with Military Application
Fee Scale:	Individual sessions are $185.00per hour and my fees for Couples' Counseling is $200.00 per 1-1/2 hours and groups (including families) at the rate of $120.00 for 1-1/2 hours
Code of Conduct:	In the event that a client would like to file a complaint regarding my counseling services, a written complaint should be sent to the following location: Michigan Department of Licensing and Regulatory Affairs / Bureau of Professional Licensing Investigations & Inspections Division P.O. Box 30670 Lansing, MI 48909 (517) 241-0205
Supervision:	As a limited Licensed Professional Counselor, I am under the supervision of Pamela Jordan, PhD, LPC, CAADC. Should you have any questions you may contact Ms. Jordan at (616) 340-9860. Pamela Jordan, PhD, LPC, CAADC License #6401011136
